Poulin Antiques & Auctions Inc

199 Skowhegan Rd

Fairfield, ME 04937

Subject: Important Notice Regarding Recent Data Breach Incident

Dear Valued Customer,

We regret to inform you that there was a data security incident that may have involved some of your personal financial information. At Poulin Antiques & Auctions Inc., we take the protection and privacy of your data very seriously, and we are committed to keeping you informed about important updates regarding your information.

What Happened

On October 25. 2026, our IT detected unusual activity in one of our systems. This activity was confirmed as a data breach occurred. We immediately activated our incident response procedures, secured the affected systems, and engaged independent cybersecurity experts to forensically investigate the cause and prevent further unauthorized access. Law enforcement authorities have also been notified.

Information Potentially Compromised

The independent cybersecurity firm's incident report analysis indicated that it is undetermined if data was taken. In an abundance of caution, we decided to notify every person in our system of potentially accessed information. The information that may have been accessed includes full or partial name, mailing address, email address, telephone number, driver's license or identification card, account information, SSN, payment information, bank information & credit cards. At this time, there is no evidence that your information has been misused.

What We Are Doing

Upon discovering the breach, we isolated the affected systems and reset administrative credentials, implemented addition robust security measures and additional monitoring, conducted a thorough investigation, & engaged with a team of cyber security experts to monitor our system for further suspicious activity.

Recommended Actions for You

As a precaution, we recommend that you:

1. Monitor your bank and credit accounts for unusual activity
2. Change your passwords for our services and any other accounts using the same password
3. Be alert for phishing attempts or suspicious communications
4. Consider placing a fraud alert or security freeze on your credit reports

We apologize for any concern or inconvenience this incident may cause and are committed to further enhancing our security measures to prevent future breaches.

If you have any questions, please contact our Incident Response Team at 207-453-2114 or info@poulinauctions.com

Sincerely,

Nicholas Poulin

President

Poulin Antiques & Auctions Inc